TUE DAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1880.

A Thousand Years From Now We never can contented be With our own lot in life; We've always trouble on our mind, Some new born care or strife; Why not travel through the world With sunshine on your brow?

For you'll never know the difference In a thousand years from now. 'Twon't do to be too proud these days, Because you have your wealth— You may some time the wrong man meet, And thereby lose your health. Don't scorn to earn your living By the hoe, the sparts the plow.
For you'll never know the diff rence

In a thousand years from now. Because your parents are well off. Remember when the sun is warm. You can't a ways find the shade. Don't scorn to do a little work— Though sweat adorn your brow—

For you'll never know the differer ca

DEATH OF THE INTEMPERATE -It is a sad death. There is no comfort on that dying pillow, no sweet response, no voice of friendship bidding adicu, no lighting up of joy in the departing spirit.

It is a frequent death. Every day they go through its gates in our land. It is an early death. Few druckards live out half their days. It is an unlamented death. "No one will miss him," is the common saying. Even his family will expect more comfort, now that he

To the Conservative Voters of Alex. andria City and County.

Pursuant to resolution adopted by the Conservative Executive Committee of the city and county of Alexandria, the voters of the city and county of Alexandria are hereby called to meet in their respective wards and districts at the usual places for holding ward meetings, on Monday, July 19th, 1880, at the hour of 80 clock p. m. of that day, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Conservative Congressional Convention, which is to convene in Alexandria on the 25th day of August 1880; said delegates to be selected upon the following basis prescribed by the Central District Conservative Committee, viz: One delegate for every 100 Conservative Vizione of Selected Vizione Conservative Committee vizione of Selected Vizione Conservative Vizione Vizione Conservative Vizione Vizione Conservative Vizione Conservative Vizione vative votes, or fraction thereof over 50, cast in representation will entitle the respective wards of Alexandria city to the number of delegates as follows, to wit: First ward, four; Second ward, three; Third ward, six; Fourth ward, JAMES M. CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

By virtue of authority vested in us by the State Central Committee, we hereby designate Wednesday, the 25th day of August, 1880, as the time, and Alexandria as the place, for holding a convention to nominate the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 8th Congressional District of Virginia.

The basis of representation will be one delegate and one alternate to every one hundred votes and fractions of one hundred exceeding fifty east for Tilden and Hendricks in 1876. Delegates to said convention are to be selected by county, district or ward meetings, or by primary election by wards or districts, as the various county of city committees may elect, and at such times as the respective county or city committees may determine; provided, that if district or ward meetings or primary elections are adopted, such meetings or elections in any one county or city shall be held on the same day.
